

Steve Mazza

Born and raised in Sheraden, Steve Mazza brings more than 25 years of building trade experience and relationships to the projects, committees, and organizations for which he serves. He is actively involved in politics and community service. A Council Representative for the KML Regional Council of Carpenters that includes PA, WV and MD, Steve's career began as an apprentice with the Carpenters Union Local 142. He has since developed significant leadership experience, working with contractors, engineers, architects, union leadership and members. He has served many leadership roles of Local 142 including Vice President and currently Recording Secretary. Before being promoted to Council Representative, Steve worked on many significant union projects throughout the region including PNC Park, Heinz Field and the Heinz History Center.

He is a long-time member of the Allegheny County Labor Council and the Parade Chairman of the annual Pittsburgh Labor Day Parade coordinating with 75,000 union members and families. As a 20th Ward Committee Person for nearly 15 years, Steve works tirelessly towards strengthening the community through both volunteer and organized efforts.

Since its inception and becoming a Board Member of Rebuilding Together Pittsburgh, Steve works yearly on their effort to provide low-income homeowners with critical home repairs, accessibility modifications, and energy-efficient upgrades. Steve continues to contribute to Rebuilding Together Pittsburgh and the more than 25,500 volunteers who have completed nearly 2,300 rebuild projects in Allegheny County.
